Action for children's floating support service works alongside young people to tackle the underlying issues that can lead to homelessness

We provide a flexible, individual approach enabling young people to feel safe and secure wherever they live.

We can support you if you are:

- Homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- Aged 16 to 25 years old.
- Living in the Fermanagh or Omagh area.

Please get in touch with us if you are:

- Homeless.
- Having regular arguments at home.
- Feeling unsafe in your home.
- Sleeping on a friends sofa or moving from place to place.
- Living in rented property and at risk of eviction.
- Struggling to pay rent and bills.
- Finding it hard to manage your finances and benefits.
- Having problems with neighbours or unwanted visitors.

Your dedicated floating support worker can help you:

Sort out any difficulties with family or carers.

Deal with your landlord whether NIHE or private.

Manage your:

- Home and personal safety.
- Appointments.
- Bills and finances.
- Relationships.
- Free time.
- Physical and mental health and well-being.
- Education and employment.

Our commitment to you:

We listen.

We make plans with you.

We meet at a time and place that suits you.

We work closely with the people who are important to you.
