

Reaching Out, Supporting Families: 2021 Conference

Rethinking family support: building connections to strengthen families

Join us for the Reaching Out, Supporting Families 2021 conference Rethinking family support: building connections to strengthen families held on zoom on Thursday 30 September 09:30 - 12:30

This conference will highlight the learning gathered from six years of supporting ordinary families facing extraordinary circumstances, and ask the important questions on what happens when different sectors collaborate. Find out more about our learning from our recently published study.

To sign up and for more information, follow the registration button below:

Register

